I. Welcome/Introductions

II. Statistics

III. Account Balances

As of February 6, NSP has spent $16,159.87 for the weekday patrols; this figure reflects 13 out of 19 payrolls. For the weekend patrol, NSP has spent $23,791.88 through January 26, 2008; this figure also reflects 13 out of 19 payrolls. There is $36,040.25 remaining, which ensures adequate coverage for the remainder of the semester.

IV. 2007-08 Patrol Calendar

There were no changes made to the current 2007-08 patrol calendar.

The group discussed MayFest (April 22, 2008) and the possibility of it being held the same day as Block Party. Darya and John discussed repeating last year's method of distributing information to students regarding being responsible neighbors, given that some students may hold parties during the day.

John informed the group that there has not been any significant increase in activity in the neighborhood.

Darya discussed the door-hangers that were distributed to students before Spring Break.

V. New Business

Parking "Boot"

Harry discussed the annual SEUNA meeting that took place on February 21st, and pointed out that the parking boot has had a positive effect on the neighborhood, particularly with out-of-state vehicles.

VI. Next Meeting

The group decided to circulate potential dates via email to determine the next meeting.
